The screenshot shows the ExamFX online training interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the ExamFX logo and links for Main Menu, My Account, Contact Us, and Log Out. Below this is a header for "Video Series". A sidebar on the left titled "Select A Topic:" lists various insurance topics: Annuities, Annuity Categories, Dividend and Dividend Options, Exclusions, and Hazardous Occupation or Hobby. The "Exclusions" section is currently selected and highlighted in yellow. The main content area shows a video player titled "Now Playing: Aviation". The video content is "Life Insurance Policy Exclusions: Aviation" and features a woman in a grey suit. The video player includes a progress bar, play/pause buttons, and a volume control icon.
